

Church of the Holy Communion Cathedral

Music

Praise the Lord!

Sing to the Lord a new song,

and his praise in the assembly of the saints.

-Psalm 149:1

At Church of the Holy Communion, we are committed to making a “joyful noise unto the Lord.” Hence, song is frequently interspersed throughout our entire service of worship. Our goal in the music ministry is to lead the congregation into the songs of the faith, bringing the Lord an offering of praise which is both beautiful and true. Our Cathedral Choir, directed by Candace Bawcombe, provides leadership in this singing by supporting the congregation. An all-volunteer, non-auditioned group, our choir supports one of the Sunday morning services each week by singing hymns, choral anthems, psalms, and service music. Because music is a part of our Christian heritage which we must pass on to our children, a part of our Sunday school program at Church of the Holy Communion is devoted to sacred music. The children in the 2nd through 6th grades participate in a sacred music program (under the direction of Candace Bawcombe) where they learn to sing the faith through musical settings of the Lord's Prayer, the Nicene Creed, and the Ten Commandments, as well as great hymns of the ages.

Contact: Candace Bawcombe, Music Director and Organist

candace@holycommuniondallas.org